BULLET IN EMPTY RIFLE

Nine-Year-Old Boy Shot by Companion "Who Didn't Know It Was Loaded."

When Critchlow, the 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Critchlow, is the latest Ogden victim of the deadly unloaded gun. At 11 o'clock last evening a companion, Harold Stuhl, the 14-year-old son of John Stuhl, a foreman in the Southern Pacific company's employ, living at 443 Twenty-ninth street, pointed a 22-calibre rifle at Critchlow, thinking it was empty. He pulled the trigger and the ball entered the Critchlow boy's left side. Dr. Edward L. Rich and Ezra C. Rich were called in and after an examination pronounced the injury not serious, although they said that they could not tell exactly how much more thorough examination was made this morning. The accident happened at the Stuhl home and the injured boy is being cared for there.

FINDS ITS RENT TOO HIGH.

School Board Decides to Leave Its Present Quarters.

The board of education last night decided to hunt for a new home, feeling that the rent on its present quarters, the building is too high. A committee will visit the city hall today in search of a new home. The board reported that receipts for April, including the amount on hand at the beginning of the month, of $156,000.00, were paid during the month amounting to $15,028.32, balance on hand May 1, $140,971.68. A communication was received from the county board of education asking the support for the proposition to have the county school tax levy increased from 15 mills to 25 mills. This matter was referred to the finance committee. The committee on supplies reported that it had secured the opera house for June 29 free of cost. Seven cases of contagious diseases were reported. Five of scarlet fever and two of chicken pox. The form of a teachers' contract was adopted and the board adjourned.

RAPID TRANSIT WORK.

Bridges for Canyon and Plain City Extension.

Structural steel for the three bridges to be erected by the Rapid Transit company along its line through Ogden Canyon is on the ground and the bridges will be thrown together in short order by a large force of expert bridge workers in the field. Grading is in progress and much masonry is shown by the company in building its work. The company is also rushing the work on grading of the extension of the Rapid Transit road to Plain City. Five miles of grading has already been graded and the additional miles still remain to be done. The former agreed to do the grading of the Rapid Transit would put in the road and operate the line.

LOST IN LAKE SUPERIOR

Steamer Shores Goes Down Off Whitefish Point—Crew and Passengers Numbered Twenty-One. Duluth, Minn., May 7.—Advises received here tonight say the steamer Shores, six days overdue at Duluth, went down off Whitefish Point in Lake Superior, with all on board. The crew and passengers numbered twenty-one.

Marquette, Mich., May 7.—Nothing is known of the loss of the steamer Shores at Munising. The steamer Gettysburg reports having run through drifting wreckage last night near White Point. The wreckage consisted of a pilot house, yawl boat, skylight and a cabin. There is no question that some steamer has been lost between Munising and Whitefish Point.
